Meet Your Tour Director - Georgina Lorencz

Holding a Master of Arts in Speech Communication with an emphasis in Broadcasting and a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, Georgina brings with her over 26 years' experience assisting both domestic and international organizations with program development. Georgina has traveled through parts of Europe, Central and South America, the Middle East and Africa. Georgina's travels included teaching and leading graduate and undergraduate students to Africa for research.

Prior to African Travel Seminars, Georgina directed international Programs at Hamline University for eight years. This included working with incoming international students and scholars from over forty countries and managing the study abroad programs.

Georgina is an experienced award-winning Tour Operator. Black Meetings and Tourism presented the Apex award for Distinguished Contributions to Heritage Tourism to Georgina. Africa Diaspora Tourism also recognized her for Outstanding Cultural Heritage Educational tours. She's also originally from Ghana, West Africa.

Georgina is a life-long learner who has a strong belief that every culture has something special that each of us can learn from. Combining her travel experience, photography skills, and belief that everyone must practice responsible tourism, she provides opportunities for program participants to learn about destination through Pre-Departure orientation in preparation for the visit so that each program participant is knowledgeable about the country. While overseas, there are opportunities to meet and learn from the locals. Finally, visits are arranged to Self-help development projects to allow each participant to make a meaningful impact on the lives of economically disadvantaged peoples by donating books and other needed supplies.
